TOUR ALASKA WITH NORTHERN LIGHTS

DAY 1 — ANCHORAGE

Arrival in Anchorage. Welcome and transfer to the hotel. Check-in and the rest of the day free. In the afternoon, the guide will give a presentation about the area near the hotel to help you settle in.

DAY 2 — ANCHORAGE / TRAIN RIDE TO FAIRBANKS

Breakfast. Early departure in the morning to board the Alaska Railroad in Anchorage for an epic journey to Fairbanks, offering unforgettable panoramic views through its glass-domed rail cars. Leaving Anchorage, we follow along Knik Arm, with breathtaking views of the Chugach Mountains. We pass through Wasilla and cross the impressive Hurricane Gulch canyon on a bridge 296 meters high. The journey takes us through the heart of Denali National Park, where, on clear days, we have the chance to see majestic Mount Denali. We continue north, crossing rivers, valleys and boreal forests. We cross the historic Mears Memorial Bridge before entering Fairbanks. Arrival in Fairbanks and transfer to the hotel.

DAY 3 — FAIRBANKS

Breakfast. At the appropriate time, we begin our panoramic tour of Fairbanks, Alaska's "Golden Heart City." We start downtown, passing the iconic First National Bank temperature clock, famous for recording extreme temperatures. We end our tour at the Creamer's Field overlook, a wildlife refuge where we can observe migratory birds and, depending on the season, perhaps even the dazzling Northern Lights. In the afternoon, a visit to Santa Claus House, and in the evening we set out on an aurora-hunting adventure to search for the Northern Lights under the Arctic night sky!!!

DAY 4 — FAIRBANKS / HOT SPRINGS / FAIRBANKS

Breakfast. At the appropriate time, departure for a visit to Pioneer Park, on the banks of the Chena River, where we see replicas of pioneer cabins and learn about the history of the region's gold rush. We pass the Trans-Alaska Pipeline, an engineering marvel that stretches more than 1,280 km. We visit Togo Square downtown, honoring the famous sled dog that helped save the city from a diphtheria epidemic in 1925. We continue our journey through the Chena River valley. Upon arriving at this beautiful hot springs resort, you will visit and enjoy Alaska's famous hot springs, renowned for their healing and rejuvenating properties. Return to Fairbanks. Once again in the evening, you will take part in an "aurora hunting" adventure in search of the Northern Lights.

8 Days and 7 Nights

5 DAY 5 — FAIRBANKS / FLIGHT TO ANCHORAGE / GIRDWOOD

Breakfast. At the appropriate time, transfer to Fairbanks Airport to board your flight to Anchorage. Arrival in Anchorage. Welcome and transfer to Girdwood. Girdwood is a picturesque resort town nestled in the Turnagain Arm valley. Originally a gold-mining community, Girdwood has become a year-round tourist destination, famous for its natural beauty and outdoor activities. The town's focal point is Alyeska Resort, a renowned ski resort that offers some of Alaska's best slopes during winter.

6 DAY 6 — GIRDWOOD

A full free day to enjoy this extraordinary Alaska resort. Surrounded by temperate forests and imposing mountains, Girdwood is a paradise for nature lovers. Hiking trails, such as the Winner Creek Trail, offer opportunities to explore the lush forest and observe local wildlife. The town has a warm, relaxed atmosphere, with a variety of restaurants, cafés and unique shops. The Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center is nearby, offering the chance to see native Alaskan animals up close. With its combination of natural beauty, outdoor activities and small-town charm, Girdwood offers an authentic Alaska experience.

7 DAY 7 — GIRDWOOD / PANORAMIC TOUR OF ANCHORAGE

Breakfast. At the appropriate time, departure for Anchorage. We will take a panoramic tour of Anchorage, getting to know the most important sights, places and attractions of our city. Learning about the history, traditions and culture that shaped this metropolis, we will pass by the charming gift shops that draw in every visitor and encourage them to take home a souvenir of this "Last Frontier." In the afternoon, we suggest taking part in an optional tour, an unforgettable experience with Huskies, true heroes that were essential to human development in Alaska. A powerful pack of huskies pulling a sled along a snow-covered trail is the quintessential Alaskan adventure that fuels travelers' dreams. Sleds pulled by Huskies gliding across Alaska's snow are a tradition linking past and present. Overnight in Anchorage.

8 DAY 8 — ANCHORAGE / RETURN JOURNEY

Breakfast. At the appropriate time, transfer to Anchorage Airport to board your return flight.
