5 DAY 5 — PHILADELPHIA / HARTFORD / BOSTON

Breakfast. In the morning, we continue our journey toward the New England region, passing through Hartford, the capital of the state of Connecticut, where the celebrated writer Mark Twain, father of American literature, once lived. We then reach the state of Massachusetts, which played a crucial role in the early history of the United States. It was the site of Plymouth Colony, established by the Pilgrims in 1620, and the Massachusetts Bay Colony, established by the Puritans in 1630, which helped found the United States of America. Arrival in Boston, where during our visit you will discover why the city is the birthplace of American independence.
