

A wide-angle photograph of the Chicago skyline at dusk. The Willis Tower is the central focus, its spire reaching into a sky with soft, orange-tinged clouds. Other skyscrapers are visible, their windows glowing with interior lights. In the foreground, the calm water of Lake Michigan reflects the city lights and the sky. A curved teal banner is at the top, and a teal box containing text is on the right side of the image.

TOUR MUSIC ROUTE WITH CHICAGO

- 1 DAY 1 — ARRIVAL IN NEW ORLEANS
Arrival in New Orleans. Welcome and transfer to the hotel. Check-in and the rest of the day free. On this day, our guide will give an overview of the area near the hotel to help you get your bearings. New Orleans' French cultural heritage and its picturesque geography between Lake Pontchartrain and the incredible Mississippi River have shaped the musical culture and flavors of Southern U.S. cuisine.
- 2 DAY 2 — NEW ORLEANS
Breakfast. In the morning, we will take a city tour of New Orleans, one of the most exotic cities in the world, famous for its riverboats, jazz, Creole cuisine and an endless calendar of festivals. We will visit Bourbon Street and the famous French Quarter, where the most famous Carnival celebration in the U.S., the dazzling Mardi Gras, takes place every year. Take this opportunity to enjoy local cuisine at one of New Orleans' many Cajun and Creole restaurants, or step back in time with a steamboat ride on the Mississippi River.
- 3 DAY 3 — NEW ORLEANS
Breakfast. Enjoy another full day of leisure in this vibrant city. Stroll through the Vieux Carré, better known as the French Quarter, the historic heart of the city, famous for its vibrant nightlife and colorful buildings with cast-iron balconies. The lively Bourbon Street offers jazz clubs, Cajun restaurants and lively bars serving strong cocktails. Quieter streets lead to the French Market, with gourmet food and local crafts, and to Jackson Square, where street performers entertain in front of St. Louis Cathedral, a place with narrow streets, amazing old buildings and beautiful gardens. Our Brazilian guide will be on hand with the best tips for this wonderful city.
- 4 DAY 4 — NEW ORLEANS / MEMPHIS
Breakfast. Early in the morning, we will leave Louisiana, crossing the state line into Mississippi. Enjoy the journey as we enter Tennessee, the birthplace of country music in North America, heading toward Memphis. Located in the far southwest, this is home to the legendary Elvis Presley, the pioneer of rock and roll. We will arrive in time to enjoy the nightlife of this beautiful city on the banks of the Mississippi. Arrival in Memphis for check-in.
- 5 DAY 5 — MEMPHIS
Breakfast. Located on the banks of the Mississippi River in southwest Tennessee, Memphis is famous for the influential musical genres that originated there, such as blues, soul and rock 'n' roll. Elvis Presley, B.B. King and Johnny Cash recorded albums at the legendary Sun Studio, and Presley's Graceland mansion is a must-see attraction. (Admission not included) Other music landmarks include the Rock 'n' Soul Museum, the Blues Hall of Fame and the Stax Museum of American Soul Music. In the morning, we will take an unforgettable tour visiting Graceland, Elvis Presley's mansion that attracts visitors and fans from around the world. Enjoy the afternoon and explore the birthplace of the blues by catching a performance at one of the bars on famous Beale Street, or hop on the monorail to enjoy the attractions of Mud Island.
- 6 DAY 6 — MEMPHIS / NASHVILLE
Breakfast. Today's journey crosses the state of Tennessee, which became the heart of the country music scene. Accommodation at the SpringHill Suites Memphis Downtown hotel, in the heart of the city.

13 Days and 12 Nights

7 — DAY 7 — NASHVILLE

Breakfast. In the morning, a panoramic tour immersing us in the sounds of the country music capital, getting to know the Grand Ole Opry and the Country Music Hall of Fame Museum. If you'd like, experience the fascinating history of the American South at the Tennessee State Museum. Enjoy even more by visiting Opry Mills, a huge shopping mall with excellent designer stores.

8 — DAY 8 — NASHVILLE / SAINT LOUIS

Breakfast. In the morning, we begin our journey westward, crossing the border into Kentucky. Through beautiful landscapes of rolling hills and farmland, we reach Paducah, and then cross the impressive Ohio River, entering the state of Illinois. Continuing through the region with the largest agricultural production in North America, we will spot the famous Gateway Arch on the horizon, signaling our arrival in St. Louis for check-in.

9 — DAY 9 — SAINT LOUIS

Breakfast. City tour of this beautiful city known as "The Gateway to the West," getting to know: the iconic Gateway Arch, the city's symbol, where visitors can climb to the top to enjoy a spectacular panoramic view; the Old Courthouse, a historic building that was the site of important trials related to slavery in the 19th century; Forest Park, one of the largest urban parks in the U.S., offering exterior views of the Saint Louis Art Museum and the Zoo. We visit the Italian neighborhood known as The Hill to admire its distinctive architecture and take in the aroma of Italian cuisine. The impressive Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis, famous for its elaborate interior mosaics, is our next stop. The tour ends in the vibrant Delmar Loop, a street full of restaurants, shops and entertainment, where visitors can see the St. Louis Walk of Fame, honoring famous personalities from the city. Free afternoon. How about a boat ride along the legendary Mississippi?

10 — DAY 10 — SAINT LOUIS / CHICAGO

Breakfast. We begin the day crossing the mighty Mississippi River, entering the state of Illinois and passing through fertile plains and small towns on our way to Springfield, the state capital and hometown of Abraham Lincoln. Continuing north, the landscape of vast corn and soybean fields gradually shifts from rural areas to the urban setting of one of the largest cities in the U.S. Arrival in Chicago, where you will see the city's impressive skyline rising on the horizon, on the shores of the magnificent Lake Michigan.

11 — DAY 11 — CHICAGO

Breakfast. Our morning begins with a tour getting to know: the iconic Millennium Park, where visitors can admire the famous "Cloud Gate" sculpture, affectionately known as "The Bean." We continue to the Magnificent Mile, the city's main shopping avenue, full of luxury stores and impressive architecture. We pass by the Willis Tower (formerly the Sears Tower) and Navy Pier, a historic pier transformed into an entertainment center on the shores of Lake Michigan. The tour continues through the Loop, the city's financial heart, passing landmarks such as the Chicago Theatre and the Art Institute of Chicago. A quick visit to Grant Park offers stunning views of Lake Michigan and Buckingham Fountain. Free afternoon. In the evening, don't miss visiting one of the famous jazz clubs or blues bars featuring the best of American music.

12 — DAY 12 — CHICAGO

Breakfast. A full free day to enjoy the "Windy City." Our guide will be on hand with tips and suggestions for outings or shopping. We suggest a short architectural cruise along the Chicago River, admiring the city's iconic skyscrapers and learning about its unique architectural history.

13 — DAY 13 — DEPARTURE FROM CHICAGO

Breakfast. At the appropriate time, transfer to the Chicago airport.
